When a fellow thinks he's beaten And he's feeling down and out, When he feels his courage oozing And his hand goes up the spout;
When he starts to feeling lonely,
And he gets to feeling blue—That's the time you want to help him With "Hello, there; howdy do!"

MODERN LAUNDRY TO OCCUPY NEW BUILDING NEXT MONDAY.

After many vexatious delays Mr. W.
T. Martin of the Modern Laundry Company, announces their new building on East Second street is ready for occupation and that all the business of the concern will be transferred to that place next Monday.

This will be one of the best equipped laundries in the state and the machinery throughout is of the latest and most approved pattern. A new feature will be steam-heat ironing.

When the plant has been in operation long enough to be put into perfect order it is the intention of the proprietors to invite the public to make an inspection of it and see the modern day washing troubles are handled by an up-to-date institution.

MAIL ORDERS PROMPTLY FILLED.

SPECIAL SESSION

The City Council Met Monday Night To Consider Several Important Matters.

Pursuant to a call issued and signed by the requisite number of City Pappies, a special session and a caucus meeting were held Monday night in the Council Chamber for the purpose of considering some important matters.

The call was amending two ordinances passed at the last meeting of Council and to procure an assessor's book, and the first business was the amending of the ordinance relative to the improving of Second street from the East side of Union to the west side of Carmel, which was to have been done by reconstructing it with asphalt. The ordinance was amended by changing the word "asphalt" and inserting "vitritified brick." This change was made in order to get bids on both asphalt and brick for that thoroughfare, several members claiming that a number of property owners along the line to be improved desired brick, and of course, it was only fair to get bids on both for the benefit of those who will have to foot the bill. The amendment was adopted by a unanimous vote.

The next business was an amendment to the new "liquor" license ordinance. It is proposed to strike out the 4½ gallons in the original ordinance and insert one case.

The city assessor's book was the next special session to be disposed of, and the procuring of one was placed in the hands of the ways and means committee. At this juncture Member Thomas of the First ward, arose and asked the mayor whether or not City Assessor James Stewart, who was elected by the new Council, was a resident of Ohio, and if so, he was not eligible to hold office in Kentucky. This had the same effect on the quiet meeting of Council as some one who had let a monkey-wrench get away from him and slide into a set of gear wheels on a rapidly running machine, for it was the means of breaking up the special meeting, as Member Easton questioned the legality of such a procedure, as Council had not been called to consider that question.

In order to get at the matter, the special session was adjourned and the members went into a caucus meeting, pledging themselves to stand by the business transacted caucously at the regular meeting. It was caucused to leave the matter of investigating Mr.
Stewart's place of residence and whether or not he had voted in Ohio to the ways and means committee with Mayor Lee and the city attorney added, and what action they took would be sanctioned at the regular meeting of the City Council.

As this was about to end the meeting, City Attorney Calhoun made a statement to the caucusers that if they would express their willingness to back him up, he would draw up an ordinance creating a sinking fund for the city, in order that the street paying bonds could be disposed of to the various banks of this city. He explained that the city would be compelled to pay for the street improvements and about $3,600 worth of property that was not worth the improvements, and in order to make a saving of a considerable amount to the city and property holders a sinking fund, to which the city would add $1,500 annually for ten years, with a slight addition to take care of the interest, would insure the safety of the banks and they would buy the street paying bonds, and when the work was done the contractors could be paid in cash, thus enabling them to bid on the work and be sure of no bad debts.
In doing this he thought the saving would be from 16 to 20 cents a square yard lower than the bids last year.

He was instructed to go ahead with the ordinance, and the Council to a major would sustain it.

Before a motion could be made to require Chief Mackey to sew up the press table to keep the wabble out of it and build a fence around the press boys to keep some of the members from spitting tobacco juice on their good clothes, the caucus caucused.

THE FRAME WORK

In any building operation requires greater care than a great many people imagine. The lumber that goes into it should be of the best because it constitutes the inner shell. Let that weaken and the whole structure begins to totter. This is good advice.
